Dedication

To a man who has shown to us by example that Christianity is not merely an ideology, but an every day walk with God. His life has challenged us all to dedicate our lives to Christ, serving Him to the best of our ability. He never ceases to inspire each student who comes in personal contact with him.

To you, Wes Gerig, we dedicate the 1962 Light Tower; for we greatly appreciate your concern for each one of us.

The Senior Class

We, the Senior Class, can look back on four years of sowing and cultivating of the seeds of truth that were implanted in our lives by the professors and the Holy Spirit. As we look to the future, we can see the harvest fields of service that have been planted and cultivated by the Holy Spirit through others. We can go forth "reaping the harvest," serving the Lord with our lives, giving our all to Him.

The Junior Class

The Junior class has had a busy year preparing to serve the Lord to the best of their ability through diligent study, practical service in churches throughout the community, and stimulating Christian fellowship. Classmates are brought together by such social activities as the Junior-Senior banquet, class parties, and the planning of displays. Spiritual growth is gained through prayer meetings, chapel programs, and fellowship. It is each Junior's goal to be ready for whatever life may bring as God's workman, equipped for service.

The Pre-Junior Class

Many different courses of study are represented in the pre-junior class. As a class, spiritual fellowship was enjoyed in having charge of supper devotions and chapel, and on days of prayer sharing burdens as well as praise. Another remembered activity was planning and constructing the homecoming display, which carried out the theme, "In Times Like These." It is each member's desire to serve Christ and become better servants of His.

The Sophomore Class

Socially, the Sophomore class enjoyed the many activities offered this past year. All of these events were topped off with our class party, a November hay-ride, which placed a deeper sense of fellowship within our class.

Scholastically, several Sophomore classes such as Philosophy, Child Psychology, Greek, and History provided us with broader visions and an awareness of our purpose in life.

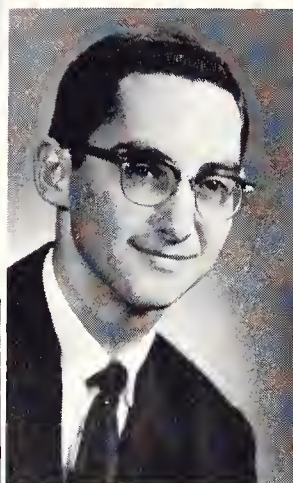

Spiritually, the chapel programs, days of prayer, supper devotions, and Christian Service assignments made Christ more of a reality in each of our lives. Through all of the experiences shared, some disappointing and some enjoyable, we always had the cross of Christ to glory in.

The Freshmen Class

The Freshman class has gone through many new, strange, and yet rewarding experiences in this their first year.

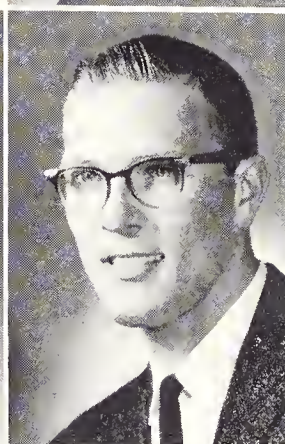

They learned a very important academic lesson at the very beginning of the year. Do not procrastinate!! Not only have they learned to work by themselves, but they have learned to work together. As a unit they built a homecoming display and passed out tracts at Christmas time. Also, through the daily chapel meetings, monthly days of prayer, class devotions, and private devotions, they have grown spiritually.

All in all, through their many ordeals, the freshmen have developed a well-rounded college life.

Second Semester Student

The Student body welcomed thirteen new students into its midst at the beginning of the second semester. After two days suffering with entrance examinations, they were given a guided tour of the campus and a preview of the college social life at a Talent Night program. After the strangeness wore off, they settled down to being a part of the college family and seemed just as much at home as any of the Seniors.

Nurses

Eight members of our BC family are presently enrolled as nursing students at the Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing. They are kept very busy with classes, while at the same time being responsible for their share of hospital duties. They are often found on campus participating in Bible studies, social events, chapel, and SMF programs, as well as just visiting with friends. Our nurses feel that the contact they maintain with the college gives them the impetus they need to keep spiritually alert while in training.

Extension Studies

The Department of Extension Studies plays an important part in the ministry of Fort Wayne Bible College. Its two-fold purpose is seen in that it enables resident students to resolve course conflicts, as well as permitting prospective students to complete anywhere from ten to fourteen hours of credit before coming to campus.

The results this department is seeing are most gratifying and encouraging, for within the past three years the volume of work being taken by correspondence has almost tripled. An average of 100 lessons a month are handled by Professor Klopfenstein, coming from many states, from men in the armed forces, and even from several who are presently in corrective institutions.

The Student Missionary Fellowship is a progressive missionary society organized for the purpose of creating and stimulating interest in world-wide evangelism. Under student leadership, it meets regularly for a public service with missionaries from various parts of the world addressing these meetings. The S.M.F. also conducts daily prayer meetings with a weekly schedule that embraces every mission field. It contributes to the support of two missionaries on the field, and carries on other missionary projects.

This past year the S.M.F. supported two missionaries: Mrs. Arthur Hall in Jamaica, West Indies, and Miss Florence Cavender in Columbia, South America. The S.M.F. also gave $1,000 toward a bus for use at the Rupp Memorial School for Missionaries' children in Sierra Leone, West Africa. The money was presented to Rev. and Mrs. William Gerig at one of the S.M.F. services before the Gerig's left for Africa.

Spiritual Emphasis Week

Rev. Gene M. Hamby
Second Semester Speaker

Each semester at Fort Wayne Bible College is begun by a week of Spiritual Emphasis. Spiritual Emphasis Week for the first semester was held September 19-22. The speaker for the series was Rev. Charles A. Epperson, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Louisville, Kentucky. Rev. Epperson's goal for the week was to lead each student to total personal commitment to Christ. He wished to see each student have complete identification with God's interests experientially and extensively.

Rev. Gene M. Hamby of Florence, Alabama, was guest speaker for the second semesters Spiritual Emphasis Week between January 30 and February 2. Rev. Hamby has been a general evangelist in the Methodist Church for 34 years, and he has preached in over 60 countries and on all the continents of the world except Australia. Rev. Hamby's goals for the week were: to reach the unsaved, to reclaim the backslider, and to prepare each student for a Spirit-filled ministry.

Rev. Gerald Gerig

The twenty-second annual Youth Conference at Fort Wayne Bible College was held from April 27 to 29, with hundreds of young people visiting our campus. The Rev. Gerald Gerig, pastor of the Decatur Missionary Church, was the special speaker. Rev. Gerig, a graduate of Fort Wayne Bible College, has worked with Youth for Christ and traveled to both Europe and South America.

With the theme "Choose Your God," young people were challenged to a definite decision for Christ and commitment to His service. The Youth Conference began with registration on Friday afternoon and a service in the evening. Saturday's activities included a concert by the A Cappella Choir, the showing of a challenging film, a program by the Bible College faculty and band, and an evening service. The climax of the Conference was reached on Sunday afternoon with an inspiring missionary service, after which the young people once again separated with a new zeal and dedication in their hearts.

Dr. Gerig gives an inspiring thought to the student body.

Chapel

Chapel, a tradition at Fort Wayne Bible College, meets each morning at 9:30 a.m. Thirty-five minutes is set aside each day as a time of real worship. The idea of worship governs the type of songs that are sung and the messages that are presented. The speakers, either from outside the school or our own professors, bring messages that are informative or edifying. Announcements are kept to a minimum so that the atmosphere of worship is maintained. At the end of the worship service there is a time of meditation during which the organ plays softly, contributing greatly to the worshipful atmosphere of our chapel services.

Ushers: Edward Podlesak, David Reichhardt, Larry Uezen, Harold Bloomer, James Huff, and William Beougher.

Students filing out of the chapel.

Mr. Grant Hoatson, producer, in the control room.

Crossroads

Every Sunday morning at 7:05 a.m. 60,000 people listen to Crossroads over radio station WOWO. Crossroads presents Christ in today's life to this large, predominantly churched audience. It emphasizes missions and the way in which the college prepares students for missionary work.

In January of this year Crossroads celebrated its fifth anniversary. At 9:30 p.m. on January 13, 1957, the program was first heard over radio station WOWO. This is the second radio program to be produced by F.W.B.C.

Ensemble members:

Mr. Richard Elmer, director

A Cappella Choir

During spring vacation the A Cappella Choir had the privilege of presenting Christ through song and testimony as they toured the states of Ohio, Michigan, and Illinois. Music chosen for these sacred concerts included anthems, Negro spirituals, and Easter selections.

Under the direction of Mr. Richard Elmer the sessions of practice and prayer proved very profitable. Not only was the life of each choir member enriched spiritually, but the thought of making Christ predominant in the lives of others, through the ministry of song, was an added blessing. In addition to the tour, the choir presented a home concert and Bach's "Jesu, Priceless Treasure," at the Spring Concert.

"And God Came," a Christmas oratorio for chorus, soprano, bass, and orchestra, by our own Dr. Rene Frank, was presented for the public on December 10.

The chorus was composed of students wishing to take part in the program, together with two guest soloists. Members of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic and our own faculty and music majors composed the orchestra. Mr. Richard Elmer directed.

"The Annunciation," Part I of the Oratorio, made a special appearance on WANE-TV and radio, which provided a real witness to the city of Fort Wayne.

For those of us who know Dr. Frank personally, the message of the oratorio was made more meaningful as we observed his life and testimony.

Christian Service

An opportunity is given for students to present the Gospel to others while they are in school. Under the direction and guidance of Miss Joy Gerig the students of Fort Wayne Bible College receive practical training in Christian work. The college is fortunate to have a full-time worker in this field, for her work makes possible the evaluation of assignments completed, and the instruction of students in praticum classes which have proven very beneficial. Due to the organizing and planning of student assignments, the community has become increasingly aware of the college as a source of Christian young people whom they can draw upon for service. Areas of participation are Sunday School teaching, Child Evangelism, youth work, gospel team ministry, choral directing, pastoral training, and mission and jail work.

Camera Club

To develop skill in taking and developing pictures, and to know how to use different kinds of cameras, are the objectives of the Camera Club.

Some of the activities included learning good composition and perspective of pictures, learning how to use all the darkroom equipment, developing colored pictures, making transparent pictures, and working with tinting and oil painting. A field trip was taken to a point of interest near Fort Wayne.

Members also entered a national contest sponsored by Anscochrome, which was open to all Camera Clubs. The winners, as well as the clubs to which they belonged, received an Anscochrome slide projector.

The Alpha Kappa Club derives its name from the Greek letter Alpha, denoting academic achievement, and Kappa, meaning "preaching." The two together suggest the development of expression in expounding the Word of God. All present and former Greek students may be members. The club aims to develop an ability to understand and to use the Greek New Testament and to provide spiritual, academic, and social activity.

Members enjoyed the annual Greek Banquet, which was held in February, at which Mr. Weddle showed pictures taken in Greece. An award of $25 was given to a member of the second or third year Greek class, for the best expository sermon based on the Greek text.

Light Tower

The Light Tower shines forth on the lives of Christian young people who are preparing for the service of their Lord, picturing their social, academic, and spiritual life. This year the staff was detained for awhile due to several unforeseen events. So for five swift-moving months they have worked diligently in organizing and producing this year's annual. Long hours were spent in taking pictures, lay-out work, typing, proof-reading, and all the tasks that are required for the development of the annual. The experience gained has taught each member of the staff the value of time, organization, and above all patience.

Music Club

Music Club membership is open to all students who are interested in music. This year's activities, among others, included various programs, and a trip to Chicago to attend Mozart's opera, "Don Giovanni."

Club members enjoy Mr. Gottschalk's slides on Ecuador at their first meeting.

Spanish Club

The Spanish club was organized at the beginning of the second semester by Professor Truman Gottschalk. To arouse interest in the club, all those interested were invited to eat their lunch with the students enrolled in Spanish classes. After a short time of fellowship around the table, the meeting began in a nearby classroom. The purpose of the club is to help students become familiar with and able to use the Spanish language freely. The club also is trying to help prospective missionaries understand Spanish-speaking people better.

SEA

The Student Education Association is a professional organization of college and university students preparing for secondary and elementary school teaching. It is affiliated with the state organization and is a branch of the National Education Association. A variety of programs were planned for the meetings held during the year such as guest speakers, films, and panel discussions. Delegates were sent to state conventions and cabinet meetings during the fall and spring.

The outstanding accomplishment of the Student Association this year was the organization and publication of a campus newspaper, the "Student Voice." The last paper of any kind was published in April of 1954 and was called the "Campus Echo." In the last "Echo," was an article in memory of Oliver E. Steiner. Today his daughter, Barbara, is the assistant editor of the "Student Voice."

The first paper was put out by the valiant efforts of the adviser on Dec. 15, 1961. This publication has since come out once a month. The newspaper is written, edited, typed, and published entirely by students. It is not a gossip column, but an informative paper written to stimulate student interest.

Pi Lambda Zeta

Pi Lambda Zeta, "making words live," has as its purposes to learn more in the areas of speech, to understand speech through observation and participation, to develop communicative skills, and to foster socialization among its members.

Some of the interesting activities and programs the members enjoyed this year were by Mr. McFadden, the speech instructor from Central High School; a demonstration of different types of oral interpretation; radio drama skits, including commercials, presented and directed by club members; a club party; and visiting the Civic Theatre to attend the play, "Romanoff and Juliet."

Ed Podlesak entertains the club with a reading as Martha Brown and Vincent Rupp, officers; Judith Dunlap, Carol Whiteman, Carmen Pusey, Donna Kearney, Sandra Lamb, Linda Leightner, William Beougher, and Kathleen Tehan listen. Mr. Elmer Soden, adviser.

"F-I-G-H-T TEAM F-I-G-H-T!" Along with the cheerleaders, the Booster Club was on hand to back the team with their cheers, screams, and applause. Marked by yellow derbies, blue feathers, and pom poms, the "Boosters" made a colorful scene at home games and several out-of-town games.

Functions of the club included creating school spirit, directing pep rallies, and providing fanfare at the basketball games.

INTRAMURAL LEADERS: Charles Kunioka, Karl Bell, Stephen Binkley, James Johnson, Paul Mays, Timothy Ranes, and Richard Emerick. Coach Morley, Adviser.

Intramural Sports

Under the leadership of Miss Rich and Coach Morley, six teams were formed to get the intramural sports program under way. Each team had a captain, and members were equally divided from among the student body. The teams then participated in the varied competitive sports during the school year. Trophies were awarded to the outstanding teams in each specific sport. The intramural sports system was organized to provide wholesome recreation, encourage leadership, promote fellowship, and add to a well-rounded Christian personality.

Christian sportsmanship was always displayed, being but another channel through which Christ might be seen.

Coach Morley and the team also made a weekend trip to Chicago, where they took charge of a morning worship service. On several occasions they had opportunities to stay at other colleges, thus enjoying the fellowship of students there.

Student Association

The Student Association is an organization which includes all the students of the college. Its purpose is to promote spiritual growth and fellowship, to assist in providing a well-rounded program of extra-curricular activities, and to provide student representatives to the campus government.

This year the Student Association sponsored the orientation activities for new students, the bloodmobile, a Halloween party, the furnishing of magazines and records for the student lounge, an intercom system for the dispensary, the re-upholstering of the student lounge chairs, and the sending of delegates to two conventions. Its outstanding accomplishment was the organization of the campus newspaper.

. . . A TIMELESS PRAYER

In founding The Christian and Missionary Alliance 75 years ago, Dr. Dr. A. B. Simpson prayed: "I have now, O Lord, covenanted with Thee, not for worldly honors or fame, but for everlasting life . . . Place me in what circumstances thou mayest desire . . . and be mine forever."

AN AGELESS TASK . . .

The 1961 Council of The Alliance was told by Dr. Nathan Bailey, president: "The supreme need of our day is a company of gospel preachers and missionaries . . . who will lay aside every other consideration and go forth preaching the Word in the power of the Holy Spirit."
